ROUNDING OF FIGURES

Many of the figures appearing in the tables have been rounded to thousands without making those adjustments which would be needed to make the rounded figures add to the rounded total. For this reason figures do not always add to the totals shown in the tables.

BUILDING STATISTICS

Tables in this section show details of building operations in Western Australia. Statistics for each series ab initio appeared in Part XII of the Statistical Register of Western Australia for 1965-66. For additional information concerning building activity in Western Australia and for comprehensive data relating to other States and Territories and Australia as a whole, reference should be made to the publication Building and Construction published annually by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra.

The Australian Bureau of Statistics, Canberra publishes current building statistics in the monthly statement Building Approvals and the quarterly statements Building Statistics, Building Operations (preliminary release), Building Statistics: Number of Dwellings (preliminary estimates) and, in summary form, in the Monthly Review of Business Statistics, the Quarterly Summary of Australian Statistics and the monthly Digest of Current Economic Statistics. The Western Australian Office of the Bureau publishes similar information for Western Australia in the monthly release Building Approvals, the quarterly statements Building Operations and Building Statistics: Number of Dwellings (preliminary estimates), the Monthly Statistical Summary and the Quarterly Statistical Abstract.

SCOPE OF THE STATISTICS

Since the end of the second World War, the Australian Statisticians have undertaken a quarterly collection of statistics of building operations. The first of these collections in Western Australia related to the quarter ended 30 September 1945.

The survey covers the activities of building contractors who undertake the construction of new buildings; the building operations of Australian Government, State Government, semi-government and local government authorities; and work performed by 'owner-builders' (see definition Owner-built on page 5). Minor alterations and/or additions, private outbuildings (garages, carports, etc.), repairs and renovations, and temporary buildings are excluded. The figures relate only to the erection of buildings, as distinct from the construction of railways, bridges, earthworks, etc.

In general, building operations may be undertaken only after the issue of a permit by the local government authority concerned. There are, however, in some Shires outside the Perth Statistical Division, areas where this condition does not apply. Details of building operations obtained from government authorities and from building contractors refer to all areas whereas details for 'owner-builders' cover only the areas subject to building control by local government authorities. The omission of the activities of 'owner-builders' in areas not subject to local government authority control does not materially affect the statistics.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND DEFINITIONS

Building Approvals. Statistics of building approvals are compiled from:

(a) building permits issued by local government authorities in respect of areas subject to building control, and

(b) contracts let, work commenced or work authorised by government, semi-government and local government authorities throughout the whole State.

Private or Government Ownership. A building is classified as 'private' or 'government' according to ownership at date of commencement. Thus 'government' includes buildings erected for Australian Government, State Government, semi-government and local government authorities either by contractors or by day labour, whether these buildings are for their own use, for rental or for sale after completion. Houses erected for particular persons under government-sponsored home building schemes or with government financial assistance are classified as 'private'.

Alterations and Additions. Prior to 1 July 1966, additions valued at $10,000 or more to buildings other than houses were classified as 'new' buildings. From 1 July 1966, alterations and/or additions valued at $10,000 or more to existing buildings of all types have been included as 'new' buildings. The value of alterations and additions of less than $10,000 is shown separately in Tables 1 and 2 relative to building approvals. From 1 July 1973 alterations and/or additions valued at less than $2,000 are excluded.

Dwelling Classification. From July 1973 dwellings have been classified according to the sub-groups 'houses' and 'other dwellings', replacing the previous categories 'houses' and 'flats'.

Under the new classification, a house is defined as a building which has been designed or adapted so that its prime purpose is a single self-contained dwelling unit which is completely detached from other buildings, and occupies (except in such cases as dwellings built for employees or families of the owner or lessee of the land) a separate titled block of land. Dwellings described as flats, semi-detached, home units, villa units, duplexes, etc. are classified as 'other dwellings'. Non self-contained dwelling units, such as might be found in motels, hostels and institutions, are not included as dwellings and the value of this building is included in the appropriate category of other buildings approved. Separate 'house' and 'other dwelling' statistics are not comparable therefore to the separate 'house' and 'flat' statistics shown prior to July 1973. 'Total dwellings' statistics are directly comparable to 'total houses and flats' shown previously.

Temporary dwellings, sheds, huts, etc. are excluded. Dwellings attached to other new buildings are not included in the numbers shown, but their value is included with that of the building to which they are attached.

Commenced. A building is regarded as having been commenced in the period in which the value of work done to date first rises from zero provided that this is not due to clearing, demolition, excavation or other non-building site preparation activity.

Completed. A building is regarded as having been completed when the building contractor has fulfilled the terms of the contract or, in the case of owner-built houses, when the house is either completed, or substantially completed and occupied.

Under Construction. Irrespective of when commenced, and regardless of whether or not work has actually proceeded at all times, once a building has been commenced it continues to be shown in the tables as 'under construction' until completed. Buildings on which work has been permanently abandoned are excluded.

Owner-built. An owner-built house is one constructed by the owner or under the owner's direction without the services of a contractor responsible for the whole job.

Contract-built. Includes the operations of all building contractors and government authorities who undertake the erection of new buildings. Buildings built by government authorities with day labour are also included.

Value of Building Jobs. The value of building jobs approved, commenced, completed or under construction represents the estimated value of the whole job when completed, excluding the value of the land on which the job is carried out.

Value of Building Work Done. Represents the estimated value of the building work actually carried out during the period.

Value of Building Work yet to be Done. Represents the estimated value of work remaining to be done on building jobs under construction at the end of the period.

Class of Building. A building is classified according to the function it is intended to serve. A building which is ancillary to other buildings or forms part of a group of related buildings is classified according to the major function of the group as a whole. Examples of the types of individual buildings included under each main functional heading are shown in the following list:

Hotels, etc. Includes motels, hostels, boarding houses and guest houses.

Shops. Includes cafes, restaurants, retail markets and showrooms. Shops classified as 'government' include government-owned shop buildings for leasing.

Factories. Includes abattoirs, brickworks, power houses, printing offices and government workshops.

Offices. Includes banks, post offices and council chambers.

Other business premises. Includes service stations, bus depots, wholesale stores, telephone exchanges, television stations and studios, and warehouses.

Education. Includes schools, colleges, kindergartens, reference libraries and universities.

Religion. Includes churches, church halls, convents, seminaries and theological colleges.

Health. Includes ambulance stations, baby health clinics, convalescent homes, hospitals, nurses' quarters and sanatoria.

Entertainment and recreation. Includes clubs, gymnasiums, public halls, squash courts and theatres.

Miscellaneous. Includes homes for aged, law courts, defence buildings, museums, orphanages, police stations and reformatories.

Persons Working on Jobs Carried out by Builders. The figures appearing in Table 18 relate to persons working on the jobs of building contractors and of government authorities which erect buildings on their own account. They include persons actually engaged on alterations, additions, repairs and maintenance when these jobs are undertaken by such contractors and authorities.

The figures exclude those working on owner-built houses, and employees of building firms which undertake only alterations, additions, repairs and maintenance.

Informants are asked to give details of all persons working on their jobs on a specified day including working principals, men working as or for sub-contractors, and men temporarily laid off on account of weather. Because of the intermittent employment of various types of sub-contractors on any particular job, it is sometimes difficult for informants to provide precise particulars of the number of sub-contractors and the number of sub-contractor employees working on their jobs on the specified day. This factor may cause some understatement in the figures shown. In other cases, because of frequent movement between jobs of some types of tradesmen, such as electricians, who may work on several jobs on the one day, some duplication may occur.

Statistical Divisions

As the formation of the Shires of East Pilbara and West Pilbara with effect from 27 May 1972 altered the common boundary between the former North-West Statistical Division and the Pilbara Statistical Division, separate figures for these divisions are not now available. Consequently, in Table 9 the component local government areas have been listed alphabetically under the single heading 'North-West and Pilbara Statistical Divisions'.

Local Government Areas

Local government areas in Western Australia are designated Cities, Towns and Shires. In tables where a dissection according to local government area appears, Cities are marked (C) and Towns (T), all other local government areas being Shires. The names and designations shown in the tables are those which were current at 30 June 1974.

Particulars of the numbers of houses completed in individual local government areas are available from 1947-48. A table showing completions in each year from 1947-48 to 1954-55 appears on pages 35-7 of Part XII of the Statistical Register of Western Australia for 1954-55. Completions in later years are shown in the corresponding table in succeeding issues or in Building and Housing.

Statistics of flats completed in local government areas are available from 1954-55 and are given for each year up to 1965-66 in Tables 35 and 36 of the 1965-66 issue of Part XII. Later statistics of completions appear in Part XII for 1967-68 or in Building and Housing.

SUMMARY OF DWELLINGS: CENSUSES, 1966 AND 1971

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND DEFINITIONS

Before the repeal, with effect from 10 August 1967, of section 127 of the Australian Constitution, the Aboriginal population (for census purposes, persons having Aboriginal blood to a degree greater than one-half) were excluded from the census tabulations. Dwellings occupied solely by such persons were similarly excluded. The tabulations resulting from the 1971 Census of Population and Housing refer to total population and total dwellings. It has been possible to compile some data from the 1966 Census on this basis and particulars have been incorporated, as appropriate, in the tables in this section.

Occupied Dwelling. For the purpose of the Census of Population and Housing an occupied dwelling is any habitation occupied on census night by a household group living together as a domestic unit, and may comprise the whole of a building or only part of it. The term has therefore a very wide reference and includes, in addition to houses and flats, a great variety of dwellings ranging from a single-roomed shack to a multi-roomed hotel or institution.

Unoccupied Dwelling. An unoccupied dwelling is defined as a structure built specifically for private living purposes and capable of being lived in, though unoccupied at the time of the census. This includes vacant dwellings available for sale or renting; dwellings such as weekenders or holiday homes which were not occupied on census night; dwellings normally occupied but whose occupants were temporarily absent on the night of the census; newly-completed dwellings whose owners or tenants had not entered into occupation on census night; and dwellings described as 'to be demolished', 'condemned', 'exhibition home', etc. The total number of unoccupied dwellings does not, therefore, represent the number of vacant houses and flats available for sale or renting.

Private Dwellings comprise the following classes:

Private house, which includes separate houses; semi-detached houses; attached houses; terrace or row houses; and villa units or town houses.

Self-contained flat. A self-contained flat is part of a house or other building which can be completely closed off and which has its own cooking and bathing facilities. Home units are included in this class.

Other private dwellings include flats (not self-contained) and dwellings such as rooms, apartments, etc. which are parts of buildings but not self-contained units. Also included are caravans, houseboats and improvised homes such as sheds, tents and huts, etc.

Non-private Dwellings are those dwellings which provide group accommodation such as hotels, motels, hostels and staff quarters and institutions such as hospitals, nursing homes, prisons, boarding schools, etc., and which were occupied on census night. Due to changes in the wording of the relevant questions, and changes in methods of classification, figures for non-private dwellings for the 1971 Census are not strictly comparable with previous census figures.

Local Government Areas. In Western Australia local government areas are designated Cities, Towns or Shires. In Table 19 Cities are marked (C), Towns (T), all other local government areas being Shires. The names and designations used are those which were current at 30 June 1971.

A number of boundary changes occurred between the Censuses of 1966 and 1971. In some cases a boundary change resulted in a change in the number of dwellings in the local government area. In order to provide a comparison with the 1971 dwelling figures, the 1966 local government area dwelling figures shown in Table 19 have been adjusted to the boundaries used in 1971.

In addition to boundary changes, some new Shires were constituted, some municipalities were amalgamated, and there were some changes of name or designation. These are listed below.

Melville, formerly a Town, was declared to be a City with effect from 3 May 1968.

The name of the Shire of Upper Blackwood was changed to the Shire of Boyup Brook, with effect from 30 May 1969.

The Town of Boulder was annexed to the Shire of Kalgoorlie with effect from 18 August, 1969.

The name of the Shire of Kalgoorlie was changed to the Shire of Boulder, with effect from 12 December 1969.

The Shire of Bridgetown was united with the Shire of Greenbushes to form one municipality named the Shire of Bridgetown-Greenbushes, with effect from 26 March 1970.

The Shire of Donnybrook was united with the Shire of Balingup to form one municipality named the Shire of Donnybrook, with effect from 26 March 1970.

The Town of Midland was united with the Shire of Swan-Guildford to form one municipality named the Shire of Swan, with effect from 1 April 1970.

The name of the Shire of Donnybrook was changed to the Shire of Donnybrook-Balingup, with effect from 17 July 1970.

Canning, formerly a Shire, was declared to be a Town, with effect from 24 January 1971.

Cockburn, formerly a Shire, was declared to be a Town, with effect from 24 January 1971.

The designation and name of the Shire of Perth were changed to the City of Stirling, with effect from 24 January 1971.
